IMPORTANT-PLEASE READ CAREFULLY: This end user License Agreement (hereinafter, "Agreement") is a legal agreement between you and TypeTogether that provides you a license to use the identified Font Software and governs the use of the Font Software as set forth herein.

By downloading, installing, accessing or otherwise using the Font Software, you agree to be bound by the terms of this Agreement. If you do not agree to the terms of this Agreement, do not purchase this License and do not download, install, access or use the Font Software.

SHORT SUMMARY

What you're allowed to do

1. Use the font to create static images (GIF, JPEG, PNG) for print materials like books, posters, magazines, branding, packaging, and logos
2. Use those images on the internet and social media, as long as you personally create them (no automated image generation)
3. Use the font in Canva, as long as every person who accesses it is counted as a licensed User
4. Give a temporary copy to a commercial printer or service bureau solely to produce your materials
5. Embed the font in PDFs for sharing designs or sending to a printer — but the PDF must be non-editable and the font must be subset (not the full character set)
6. Use the font with web font technologies (sIFR, Cufón, Typeface.js) as long as the font can't be easily extracted

What you're NOT allowed to do without buying an upgrade

1. Use the font in film, TV, streaming, video-on-demand, or internet broadcasts
2. Put the font on merchandise for sale (t-shirts, mugs, bags, toys, etc.)
3. Embed the font in software, apps, devices, or e-books

4. Use it for on-demand products (like customizable stationery)
5. Alter, reverse-engineer, or convert the font (e.g., into a webfont) without written permission
6. Use the Font Software, or any data derived from it, to train, fine-tune, validate, test, or otherwise develop artificial intelligence (AI), machine learning (ML), large language models (LLMs), generative AI systems, or similar technologies.

How "Users" are counted

1. Every individual who can access the font counts as a User — whether employees, freelancers, or contractors
2. If the font sits on a shared server accessible by X people, you need X User licenses
3. If you're an agency buying on behalf of a client, the client also needs their own license

FULL DETAILED EULA DESCRIPTION

Grant of License

1. Upon payment in full, TypeTogether grants you a non-exclusive, terminable license (the "License") to use the Font Software in accordance with the terms and conditions of this Agreement.

This License allows use of the Font Software by the amount of users specified in the purchase receipt ("Users"), for the creation of static images (e.g., GIF, JPEG, and PNG pixel-based) to be used in printed material, such as branding documents, books, posters, magazines, packaging and logos. The images may also be used on the internet and in social media provided that the image creation is not automated, the images are made personally by a Licensed User, and that no embedding or other transmission of the Font Software is possible. If you are unsure whether the intended use is permitted by this License, you can inquire at: info@type-together.com. Unauthorized sharing, lending, renting, sale, or other unauthorized use or misuse of the Font Software is a material breach of this Agreement and will result in immediate termination of this License.

2. The term "User" refers to an individual purchaser, or to an individual with access to the Font Software employed by the party purchasing this License. For example: if you intend for the Font Software to be used by five employees of an organization, then all five must be counted as Users in the purchase receipt; and if you intend to install the Font Software on a server (including in the "cloud") to which 20 people can have simultaneous access, then all 20 must be counted as Users in the purchase receipt.

Note on Canva: The use of the Font Software in Canva is permitted, provided that the number of Users on the purchase receipt includes those with access to Canva and who intend to edit or create in Canva.

3. If you are a third-party, such as a design consultancy or advertising agency, or are otherwise purchasing this License for use by or on behalf of an organization, the ultimate end-user must also purchase a License for the intended use of the Font Software. This License does not permit the use of the Font Software by temporary employees, freelancers or independent contractors in excess of the number of Users. Specifically, you may not make copies of the Font Software for temporary uses.

4. Notwithstanding the foregoing, you are permitted to make a temporary copy of the Font Software for use by a commercial printer or service bureau solely for use in the production of your own materials, or to include a temporary copy of the Font Software with a document solely for the purposes of facilitating your personal printing and/or viewing of the document.
5. If at any time your use of the Font Software exceeds that permitted in the applicable License, you agree to immediately notify TypeTogether and purchase the appropriate License upgrade. TypeTogether reserves the right to determine the terms, conditions and pricing for any License upgrades.
6. TypeTogether retains all right and title to the Font Software, the trademarks, copyrights and the designs embodied in the Font Software.

You agree not to copy the Font Software or create derivative works based upon the Font Software and/or the design of the Font. You hereby agree that this term is contractual in nature and that the unauthorized use of the design of the Font and/or the Font Software shall be an infringement of TypeTogether's rights.

7. You are not permitted to alter the Font Software in any way, such as by decompiling, reverse engineering, disassembling, modification, or altering or changing the Font Software or any associated embedding bits or convert the Font Software for use as a webfont without the prior express written permission of TypeTogether.

Use of the TypeTogether Font Software in any of the following manners and/or applications, among others without limitation, is not permitted without first obtaining the appropriate License upgrade: alphabet or letterform-related products (e.g., in merchandise such as t-shirts, cups, bags, toys, etc.); use of any illustrations embodied in the Font Software (same); use in film, television or broadcast via cable, streaming (including VOD) or on the internet (including DOOH media); use of "dingbats" or images in or forming a part of the use of the Font Software on goods for sale such as t-shirts, mugs, on demand stationery products; embedding in software or devices; storing, caching or otherwise providing access to the Font Software to third parties via the internet for use or display on the internet, irrespective of the format or technology used.

AI and Machine Learning Restrictions. You may not upload, submit, or otherwise make the Font Software available to any third-party AI service, whether public or private, where the Font Software, associated data, or resulting outputs may be retained, analyzed, or used for training, improving, or developing AI models.

If you are unsure whether the intended use is permitted by this License, you can inquire at: info@type-together.com.

8. PDF and Other Forms of Embedding or Internet transmission is restricted. You are permitted to embed the Font Software in Adobe Acrobat (PDF) documents solely for the purposes of presenting information and designs to others or for sending designs to a service bureau or printer for output or other preparation for production. You hereby agree that the Font Software shall be subset when embedded and the PDF document shall be set as non-editable. If you are not sure how to subset and create non-editable PDFs, contact Adobe or TypeTogether. You are not permitted to embed the entire character set or substantially all of the character set comprising any Font that is subject to this License. Use of Font Software in PDF documents for sale or products utilizing other forms of embedding of the Font Software for sale (for example as part of a commercial product such as a design template or an electronic book or use with a mobile device) requires the purchase of a License upgrade.

Embedding the Font Software in web pages is permitted provided you use reasonable measures to ensure that the Font Software cannot be extracted. You may use the Font Software with web font technologies other than @font—face, such as sIFR, Cufón or Typeface.js technologies. You are not permitted to use the Font Software in connection with embedded font objects or by any other means that embed the Font Software for the purposes of displaying the Fonts on the internet or on wireless web browsers. If you wish to use the Font Software for such purposes, you must purchase a License upgrade.
