

Lisbeth

A shimmering all-italic trailblazer with a sociable voice and twisting display, by Louisa Fröhlich

ABOUT THE TYPEFACE

Louisa Fröhlich's Lisbeth is the charming all-italic trailblazer that handles branding and text with internal vividness. With no roman style, it's an italic-only family whose creation was guided by imagination instead of restrictive writing tools. Some type families aren't sure what they want. Lisbeth proceeds with the utmost confidence on its own terms — it's a feisty three-dimensional thespian amidst a cast of strait-laced characters you're used to.

With branding and magazine usage in mind, Lisbeth addresses the distinct challenges of text and display in a characterful way. The curves of the text weights show a soft angularity, emphasising the handwritten quality and the subtle twist inside the letters. The stroke's carefully balanced contrast is more pronounced in the vibrant heavier weights but almost absent in the graceful structure of the thin weight. The angle of the letters is almost upright and the x-height is relatively large, so even longer texts can be read comfortably and without effort. Lisbeth is slightly condensed and can efficiently impart much information in a smaller area. So if a type design can be thought of as the clothing letters wear, then

Lisbeth is an energetic, freely flowing stroke wrapped around practical and efficient letter proportions.

Another highlight of the family is the quirky high-contrast display style, easily catching every eye. The design concept of the twisted stroke shows at the extreme here and makes the letters dance a little on the page. Even though the shapes behave wildly, every letter is carefully balanced in itself so that the rhythmic repetition of the lettershapes results in an even and harmonic total picture.

Lisbeth's five text weights (from thin to bold) perform excellently in text settings, and its funky display style amps up the shimmering aspect of each glyph. It supports numerous languages (Latin-A extended) and comes with nice ligatures and some contextual alternates to produce beautiful typography. The character set contains proportional lining and oldstyle figures, tabular figures, subscripts, superscripts, and fractions. The complete Lisbeth family, along with our entire catalogue, has been optimised for today's varied screen uses.

A powerful conjurer, who had a bear for his mascot, thought he would like to go to the Moon. He had his hands tied up and a rope fastened around his knees and neck. Then he sat down at the rear of his hut with his back to the lamps and had the light extinguished. He called for his mascot, and the bear at once appeared and he mounted its back. Up it carried him, above the village, above the mountains, up and up till they reached the Moon. To his surprise, the Moon was a —house— which was covered with beautiful white deerskins. Now white deer are strange and sacred and are hatched from long white eggs buried deep in the soil. There is mystery and magic in white deer, white buffalo, and in all albino animals. The Man in the Moon dried these white deerskins and fastened them over his house, which, as I said, is the Moon itself. On each side of the door to the house was the upper part of an enormous walrus. The beasts were alive, and they threatened to tear the visitor in pieces. It was very dangerous to try to pass the fierce animals, but the conjurer told his mascot to growl as loud as it could, and that startled the wal-

To je však veľmi zjednodušené pomenovanie, ktoré vlastne ani príliš nekorešponduje s tým, čo si pod termínom alternatívne divadlo môžeme predstaviť. Vo väčšine prípadov šlo o klasické činoherné divadlo. Jediným alternatívnym prvkom bol čas uvedenia, ktorý skôr ako od tvorcov vyžadoval hľadanie náhradných riešení recepcie u divákov. Ide o zásadné negatívum festivalu, ktorý sa síce profiluje ako

D'Artagnan avait couru, l'épée à la main, toutes les rues environnantes, mais il n'avait rien trouvé qui ressemblât à celui qu'il cherchait, puis enfin il en était revenu à la chose par laquelle il aurait dû commencer peut-être, et qui était de frapper à la porte contre laquelle l'inconnu était appuyé; mais c'était inutilement qu'il avait dix ou douze fois de suite fait résonner le marteau, personne n'avait répondu, et des voisins qui, attirés par le bruit, étaient accourus sur le seuil de leur porte ou avaient mis le nez à leurs fenêtres, lui avaient assuré que cette maison, dont au reste toutes les ouvertures étaient closes, était depuis six mois complètement inhabité. THE DESIGNERS

Louisa Fröhlich is an independent typeface and graphic designer based in Wiesbaden, Germany. She works for and with various clients and design agencies. It is very inspirational for her to have both perspectives: to be both user and designer of typefaces. Like this, the ideas keep coming.

Louisa received her MA in Typeface Design from the University of Reading, UK, where she specialised in the Latin and the Greek script. She also holds a diploma in Communication Design from the University of Applied Sciences Mainz, Germany.

When Louisa is not designing she likes to learn about other cultures and languages, preferably while traveling and with a nice glass of wine and some exciting local food in front of her.
